PINKARD CONSTRUCTION COMPLETES CENTURA HEALTH NEIGHBORHOOD IN GOLDEN

Golden, Colorado – Pinkard Construction, with Centura Health and ERDMAN, recently celebrated the ribbon cutting of Centura Health's newest Neighborhood Health Center.

The new center, located at Heritage Road and Highway 6 in Golden, is approximately 10,700 sf, with 16 exam rooms, a wellness atrium, x-ray, and phlebotomy. Construction commenced in early October and completed last week. The clinic has been open to patients for a few days.

The new neighborhood health center is part of Centura Health's Colorado Health Neighborhood approach that offers a clinically-integrated, coordinated and comprehensive care delivery for our communities. The stand-alone ambulatory health center will co-locate providers and services to promote care coordination with multiple access points, offering the community enhanced convenience to health care in a service-friendly environment, for an affordable cost.

The ceremony included words from Kevin Jenkins, Group Vice President of Ambulatory Care, Jeff Brickman, CEO of St. Anthony Hospital as well as president of Centura Health's Mountains North Denver Operating Group and Marjorie Sloan, Mayor of Golden as well as a blessing by Centura chaplains.

Centura Health is comprised of 15 hospitals, eight affiliate hospitals, numerous health neighborhoods, health at home, urgent care centers and emergency rooms, mountain clinics, 100+ physician practices and clinics, and Flight For Life® Colorado. Centura (www.centura.org) meets the wellness needs of more than a half million people each year.
